

ATTACKED BY A MOB

A Conflict Between Troops and Strikers at Fourmies, France.

THE RIOTERS ROUTED, WITH FOUR OF THEIR NUMBER KILLED.

No Apprehension of Further Trouble in Paris—May Day Results at Rome—The British Naval Exhibition—Bismarck Elated Over His Election—London Topics—Foreign News.

PARIS, May 2.—Further particulars received here in regard to the labor riot at Fourmies yesterday show that early last evening a mob composed of about 1,300 people carrying sticks and armed with revolvers surrounded the gendarmes, crying: "Down with the masters!" "Death to the masters!" "We want our brethren!" This last cry referred to the men arrested early in the day for intimidating the men who had refused to go out on strike.

The mob then attacked the town hall, and the gendarmes sent here to protect that building fired their revolvers in the air in order to frighten the rioters, but without effect. The troops, with fixed bayonets, then charged the mob and drove it away from the neighborhood of the town hall. The crowd, however, after being driven backward, retaliated by firing volleys of bricks and pieces of paving stones at the troops, frequently striking the soldiers. After this proceeding the mob retreated, but increased numbers and made an attack on the gendarmes. A conflict took place between the gendarmes and the mob in the rear of a church, during which a number of the former were placed hors de combat.

A regiment of infantry was then summoned to the scene of the renewed disorder, and an uproar soon followed, the crowds fighting hand-to-hand. Finally upon the rioters persisting in their refusal to retire, the soldiers fired, killing three people outright and wounding many others. The soldiers, acting under their officers' instructions and in order to avoid the confusion of the riot, fired low to the people with the result that many limbs of the rioters have been amputated as one result of the labor disturbances.

The severe lesson the mob fled, and all was comparatively quiet during the night. To-day there is a feeling of suppressed excitement throughout Fourmies.

Four of the rioters who were wounded by the troops during the fighting last night have since died.

BISMARCK ELATED.

THE EX-CHANCELLOR'S SATISFACTION OVER HIS RE-ELECTION.

BERLIN, May 2.—The election of Bismarck as president of the Reichstag has overshadowed May Day as a general topic of discussion. The prince received the news of his re-election with satisfaction, as soon as he recovered from a slight indisposition he will take his seat in the Reichstag and his friends in the Reichstag have assurances that he will speak his views plainly and clearly upon the policy of the Government. The Berlin socialists do not expect to be disappointed at their candidate's defeat. They are satisfied with the vote cast as showing the strength of their principal antagonists in a position to fight their enemy, the Government. For this reason, the election of Bismarck is gratifying to the socialists, almost without exception, so far as their opinion can be gathered.

Complete return from the election of Germanists to fill the vacancy in the Reichstag show that Prince Bismarck has received the support of 48,484 votes for Herr Reichstag.

THE ATTEMPT.

The most conspicuous feature of the Berlin election yesterday is the absence of the French and the paucity of German votes. The French socialists, in their anxiety to show that the French were not alarmed, have welcomed other foreigners, especially the English, to the Reichstag.

Mr. MacIver, an American, at a banquet following the opening of the Reichstag, returned thanks for the gratifying reception given to foreign exhibitors.

CONTOUGOUS DISEASE IN RAILWAY CARS.

It having been reported that several cases of contagious disease had been traced to railway cars that had been occupied by Russian Jewish emigrants on their way to Hamburg, directions have been issued by the German railway authorities that carriages occupied last night in future be thoroughly disinfected, and if need be, the cases of well-developed scrofula have been detected in Posen among the Russian emigrants and it is said that there are many such in the interior of the Reichstag.

ALL DANGER OVER.

NO FEAR OF AN ANARCHIST UPRISING IN PARIS—Bismarck's election has been a relief to the Parisian Anarchists who were alarmed at the duty during the night and were partly relieved this morning. It being apparent that all danger was over, the Anarchists, however, are not yet satisfied. A number of Anarchist and Socialist leaders, arrested by order of Mr. Constans on Wednesday night, are still in custody and are all retained in custody against their will. There is evidence of having incited a riot, given to the police the authority of the revolutionary circulars distributed to the troops. It is stated that the Government will endeavor to secure the conviction and deportation to New Caledonia of all who may be shown to be responsible for the attempt to intimidate the city of the military. Mr. Constans is in receipt of congratulations from all sides on his successful prevention of a riot threatened to be a serious blow to the Republic. Should it be proven that Bismarck had anything to do with the Anarchists' plot against the public safety the British government would be obliged to refuse him any longer the privilege of an asylum. It is known that on Monday last and throughout the week frequent attempts were made by Bismarck and his leading adherents in Paris.

THE PLOT IN ROME.

ROME, May 2.—It has been becoming certain that a carefully concocted Anarchist plot existed in this city. The Chamber of Deputies yesterday passed a law forbidding the Anarchists to assemble in the city. The Government, deeming it to be responsible for the "Violent disturbances of May Day," has ordered the arrest of all persons who have been arrested in connection with the labor disorders here. A gendarme who was yesterday while the riot was in progress, was killed by the rioters, and the bodies of the rioters were found in the streets.

A number of men engaged in the building of the new railway line.
